

Why I'm here worksheet

What draws you to the work you do?

What draws you to the kind of work your team does?

What draws you to working with each member of your team? Write an answer for each person in the group, in the style of a love letter.

What does your "best-case scenario" for your team's work look like (if it goes exceptionally well)? What's your "worst case scenario" (if it goes just OK)?

What core skills or strengths do you want to contribute to your team's work?

What do you most want to learn from your team? (your 'edge')

What part of your team's work do you care most about?
