❖ Dropbox Business   +   △ Adobe®

Together, Adobe and Dropbox provide individuals and teams with greater flexibility to work the way they want

Access, edit, sign, and save PDFs stored in Dropbox through our Adobe Acrobat integration.

Increase mobile productivity
Connect your Dropbox and Adobe accounts to quickly find and send your Dropbox files in a seamless workflow

Securely share your work
Share folders with variable permissions throughout the collaborative review process so colleagues have the right level of access to modify documents
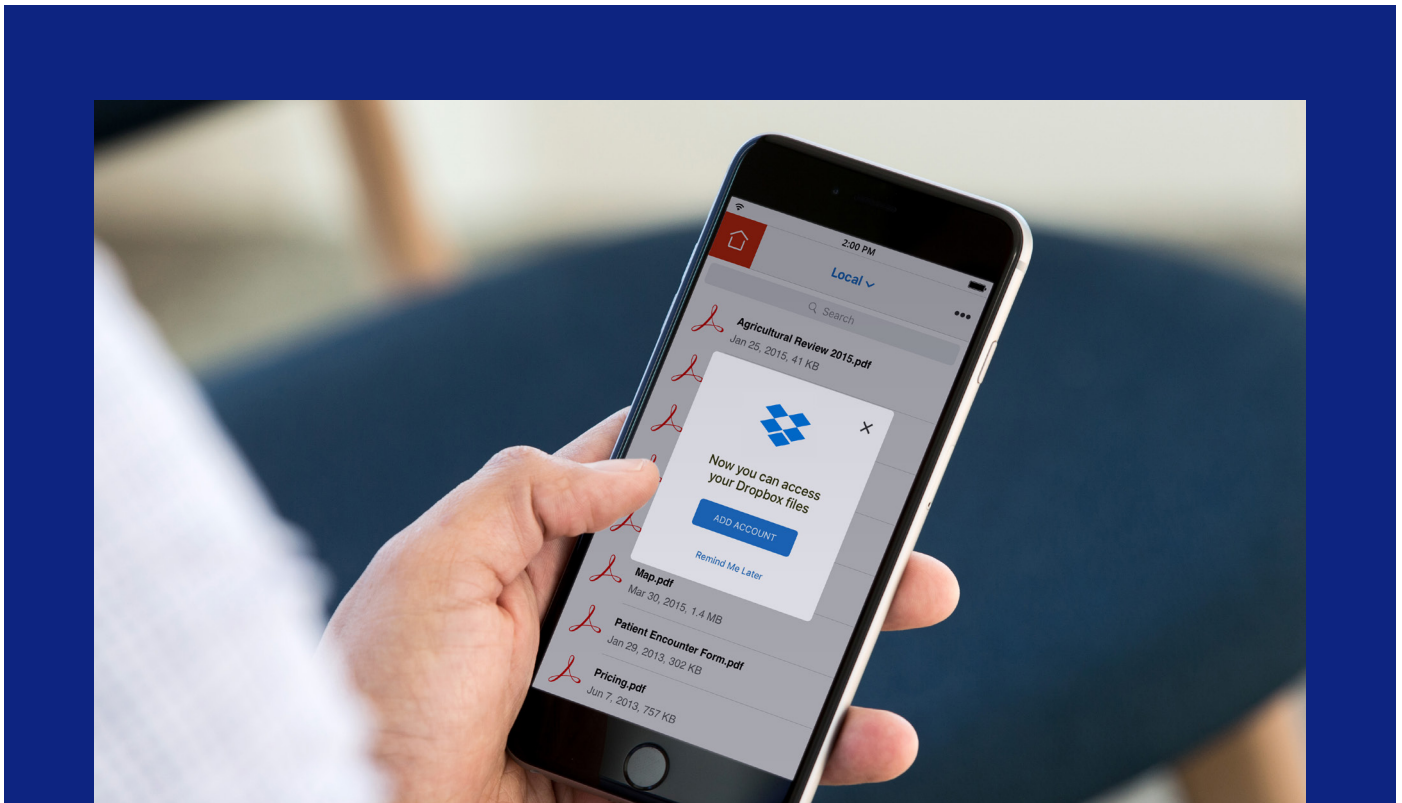

Collaborate with PDF files on the go
Highlight or annotate text from your mobile device and all changes will be automatically saved in Dropbox, so you can easily share the most up-to-date content with your collaborators

Simplify review cycles
Delta, LAN, and streaming sync allow Dropbox to sync changes for even the largest files faster and more reliably than alternative solutions

Stay in your creative flow by making it easier to find your latest Creative Cloud documents in Dropbox.

Share and preview Photoshop, Illustrator and XD files with your team on Dropbox
No matter their role on your team, your co-workers will be able to see a preview of your designs across Dropbox on web, Android and iOS

Streamline design collaboration without disrupting your workflow
Members of your extended team will also be able to use the comments and annotations features directly in Dropbox
