

Bring it all together with a unified home for work

Dropbox and Google Cloud bring all of your work together so you can stay focused on the things that matter.

New: Create, organize, and share your Google Docs, Sheets, and Slides in Dropbox

- Boost productivity by creating new Google Docs, Sheets, and Slides from Dropbox, reducing time spent switching between multiple apps and tools
- Store your Google Docs in Dropbox alongside other content, regardless of file type, so you can find all of your work in one place
- Easily collaborate and stay up-to-date on your team's work by receiving Google Docs edits and comments as notifications from Dropbox
- Share Google Docs using Dropbox's secure and robust sharing permissions, ensuring the right people have access to the right content

View, store, and share Dropbox files from your inbox with the Dropbox add-on for Gmail

- Find and sync your Dropbox files in Gmail across devices so they're accessible whenever you want them—even offline
- Save new files from Gmail directly into Dropbox without leaving your inbox, reducing the need to toggle between apps
- Include and share Dropbox links directly in Gmail so everyone has the correct version
- Preview, comment on, and share Dropbox files in Gmail before choosing to download
- Manage the visibility, access, and download permissions of every file, folder, and link you share using the Dropbox Admin Console

Manage users, devices, and apps from the Google admin console

- Seamlessly sign in to Dropbox with G Suite single sign on, allowing users to connect their accounts and providing team admins with more control and visibility
- Enable enterprise-class, single sign-on access via OAuth 2.0 or SAML 2.0 authentication methods
- Effortlessly manage users and teams in Google's cloud-based directory provisioning and de-provisioning Dropbox Business accounts as employees join the organization, change roles, or leave

Dropbox Business

- Loved by 500+ million users, Dropbox simplifies your work with easy-to-use collaboration tools and the most reliable file sync platform. From the smallest business to the largest enterprise, we make teamwork better.
- All your team's content in one place. Everyone can easily find and access what they need anytime, anywhere, so your team can easily stay on the same page.
- The best way to work together. Easily share early ideas and collaborate on any file on a widely adopted platform, so your team can focus on the work that matters.
- Security and controls for small and large teams. Keep your company's data safe with extensive security and administration features that scale as your team grows.
