LaTeX formatting

"In other tools we've used, equations and formulas come out super ugly, but with the inclusion of LaTeX as a formatting option, Paper makes them amazingly beautiful. We're finding we can draft almost an entire scholarly article in Paper. That's amazing."

Professor and Assistant Dean, Computer Science, University of North Carolina Charlotte

Real-time feedback

"I get an immediate sense and immediate feedback of how the experiment is going, and can comment immediately on the Paper doc. This is key to increasing the pace of how we do things."

Image commenting

"Studying computer vision requires us to work with large, complex images. Being able to comment on a specific part of an image in Paper is so much easier than explaining exactly where to look to understand something. It's a minor but important design detail that makes me more accurate and productive."
